SOURCE

1. Prior to early August 1950 only a small WOP (Border Guard Corps) detachment of 15 men was located in Leba (P 55/I 32). No army personnel were stationed in the town.
2. In early August 1950 a WOP detachment of 50 men, including a Soviet liaison officer, was stationed in Stolpmuende (P 55/G 80).
3. Prior to 10 September 1950 a WOP unit of 250 eighteen to twenty-year-old men wearing naval uniforms was stationed in Ruegenwaldermuende (P 55/I 68). The unit was commanded by Polish officers. A Soviet naval officer was detached to it. The personnel were quartered in new wooden barracks. Intensive infantry drill, training in rowing and sailing was observed. The unit had two motor launches.
4. A large, newly erected shed sheltering more than a hundred blocked-up new trucks was located near Ruegenwaldermuende, about 2 km west of the estuary and 800 meters from the beach. The use of the trucks could not be determined. *

25X1A * [redacted] Comment. All WOP units mentioned probably belonged to the 12th WOP Brig located in the area east of Stolp as far as Traptow.
